Oregon Institute of Technology Academic Assessment Plan 2013-14

Introduction

This document outlines Oregon Tech's ongoing academic assessment plan, including specific activities planned for the 2013-14 academic year. This plan builds on prior Oregon Tech academic assessment plans, which were broadly discussed and approved by both faculty and administrative bodies. The current plan has been developed by the Executive Committee of the Assessment Commission. The Executive Committee will update the plan and report on results annually. This document is posted on the Oregon Tech web site at www.oit.edu/assessment.

Assumptions

Oregon Tech's academic assessment plan is built on the following assumptions:

- Assessment of student learning outcomes is a highly important, ongoing, required process within the Oregon Tech academic community.
- While there are increasing requirements for accountability in higher education, the primary purpose of assessment at Oregon Tech is to improve teaching and learning.
- Assessment at Oregon Tech is a collaborative effort.
- Faculty members are expected to contribute to assessment of institutional student learning outcomes (ISLOs) as they are manifested in their programs.
- Faculty members are responsible for assessment of their programs and have the expertise in their disciplines to judge whether or not their students are meeting program student learning outcomes (PSLOs).
- Assessment methods should be reasonable and practical.
- Assessment reports should be written in a concise and straight-forward manner, recognizing the increasing demands on faculty members.
- The Executive Committee's 2013-14 work is based on the official Oregon Tech Mission Statement in the 2013-14 catalog. The assessment process links institutional mission, goals, and objectives with institutional student learning outcomes.

Leadership of Academic Assessment Efforts

The Executive Committee of the Assessment Commission, the Chair of the Assessment Commission, and the Director of Assessment have responsibility and authority to guide academic assessment activities on the campus. The Provost and Deans support the work of the commission and ensure accountability for academic assessment activities across the institution.

The Executive Committee of the Assessment Commission is charged with developing, reviewing, and implementing the institutional academic assessment plan. The charge includes the assessment of ISLOs and general oversight of program assessment by departments. Additional information on the Executive Committee can be found in the Mission Statement and Charter for the Assessment Commission, included in Appendix A.

The Chair of the Assessment Commission, appointed by the Provost, provides broad leadership for assessment activities, promotes a culture of assessment among the faculty, and chairs meetings of the Assessment Commission and the Executive Committee of the Assessment Commission. The Chair and the Director of Assessment work closely together to ensure a unified approach to assessment within the institution.

The Director of Assessment is responsible for overall planning, budgeting, organizing, faculty development, and coordination of activities required for an effective and comprehensive educational assessment program. These activities include determining and evaluating learning outcomes, incorporating outcomes into curriculum planning, and providing regular and systematic feedback leading to documented program improvements. The director works closely with the Assessment Commission to administer institutional outcomes assessment and with academic departments to administer program outcomes assessment. The director also serves as a liaison between the Executive Committee and other campus bodies engaged in institutional level assessment activities.

Communication of Assessment Matters

Systematic and broad communication on assessment matters is accomplished through the following avenues:

- The Director of Assessment is a voting member of the Provost's Council, Curriculum Planning Commission, and the General Education Advisory Council.
- The Director prepares reports for the Provost's Council for each of its meetings and brings assessment matters to the council as needed.
- The Director periodically updates the Deans and the Provost on important junctures in Oregon Tech's structured process and on assessment matters in general.
- The Director regularly communicates with assessment coordinators through email, formal meetings, training on assessment topics, and regular consultations and work sessions.
- The Executive Committee of the Assessment Commission meets regularly and includes broad representation from the campus, including the Director of Institutional Research.
- The Director writes and disseminates annual assessment reports, as detailed in the Assessment Reporting section below.
- The Chair and Director ensure that assessment information is shared with appropriate campus bodies, as detailed in the Assessment Reporting section below.

Assessment Reporting

The director is charged with writing and disseminating the following annual reports, to be completed during each academic year:

- Annual Academic Assessment Plan
- Annual Report on Academic Assessment Activities (including ISLOs and program assessment)
- Annual report(s) on scheduled ISLO assessment activities

Upon completion, these reports will be posted on the Provost's web site and announced to the faculty and administration, including the President's Office.

The chair and director ensure that the following assessment information is shared with faculty during the fall convocation period:

- ISLO assessment results from the previous academic year
- Prior year assessment accomplishments and plans for the upcoming academic year
- Other institutional assessment results, such as the Beginning College Survey of Student Engagement (BCSSE) and the National Survey of Student Engagement (NSSE).

Liaison with Other Campus Bodies Engaged in Assessment

The director serves as a liaison to other campus bodies engaged in institutional-level assessment activities. In particular, the director works with Student Affairs to ensure that BCSSE and NSSE reports are shared with appropriate faculty bodies.

Assessment and Curriculum Matters

As noted above, the director is a voting member of the Curriculum Planning Commission (CPC). In this role, the director reads all curriculum proposals, attends CPC meetings, and provides an assessment perspective to the work of CPC.

The director ensures that appropriate assessment questions are included in the CPC manual for faculty members who are preparing CPC documents. The director provides consultation to faculty members and ensures that final CPC documents for new programs and significant revisions of existing programs contain program mission, objectives, student learning outcomes, and adequate assessment plans.

Assessment and General Education

The director serves on the General Education Advisory Council. The director provides ISLO assessment results as they pertain to general education requirements and makes recommendations for changes in the requirements as appropriate.

Resources in Support of Assessment

The Provost's Office provides budget and staff resources to the Assessment Commission and to departments to help design, revise, implement, and evaluate assessment programs. The Provost also provides funding for faculty development and standardized national surveys.

Institutional Assessment

As noted above, the Executive Committee of the Assessment Commission guides campus efforts in institutional academic assessment. One major focus of these efforts is the ongoing assessment of ISLOs. The committee provides a cycle for assessment of the ISLOs, establishes the performance criteria, and distributes instructions and tools for assessment at both institution and program levels. All programs are expected to participate in the ISLO assessments as scheduled. The procedure for requesting exemption from an ISLO assessment activity is detailed in Appendix C of this plan. The ISLOs and the current assessment schedule are shown below in Table 1.

Table 1. ISLO Schedule

The committee reviews and disseminates reports from assessment of the ISLOs and makes recommendations for changes in curriculum and general education requirements as appropriate. A detailed description of the ISLOs, annual ISLO reports, and the cycle of ISLO assessments are posted on the Oregon Tech web site at www.oit.edu/provost/islo.

In addition to assessment of ISLOs, the Executive Committee tracks other institutional assessment activities, described below, and ensures liaison and dissemination of information between campus bodies.

Oregon Tech uses standardized tests to assess student learning at entry. The Student Success Center's Testing Services uses the Educational Testing Service's Accuplacer exam to assess entry-level mathematics, reading, and writing skills. The results are summarized in Oregon Tech's Student Assessment Report (SAR), along with demographic information, SAT/ACT scores, and student responses to college readiness questions. Working with the SAR, advisors meet with incoming students to place them into appropriate math and writing classes. The Math and Communication Departments track student success and the appropriateness of math and writing placements.

Oregon Tech assesses entry-level readiness and demographic characteristics of new students every three years using national survey instruments. The Cooperative Institutional Research Project (CIRP) new student survey is being phased out by Oregon Tech and replaced with the Beginning College Survey of Student Engagement (BCSSE). This information is shared with the Assessment Commission, Admissions, and the Oregon Tech faculty.

Oregon Tech assesses the level of student engagement at the freshmen and senior levels, using the online National Survey of Student Engagement (NSSE). The results from this survey are shared with the Assessment Commission, Student Affairs staff, and the Oregon Tech faculty.

Oregon Tech’s Student Success Center conducts an annual graduate status survey and reports on the employment status, continuing education, and earnings of recent Oregon Tech graduates.

Table 2 below summarizes Oregon Tech’s regularly scheduled institutional assessment activities.

- Continue work with the Advising Commission to heighten awareness of both students and advisors regarding Oregon Tech's ISLOs.

Program Assessment

The Executive Committee of the Assessment Commission provides overall guidance to the campus for its ongoing program assessment efforts. The institution requires that all undergraduate and graduate degree programs create a manageable assessment plan, focusing on program-specific learning outcomes created by each academic department.

Many of Oregon Tech's programs have discipline-specific accreditation. In most cases, the assessment requirements for specialized accreditation are congruent with Oregon Tech requirements. Where possible, Oregon Tech encourages faculty to use the assessment reports submitted to these separate bodies as their assessment report for Oregon Tech as well.

The director provides the departments with a variety of support for program assessment efforts, including formal meetings of the Assessment Commission, regular one-to-one work sessions and consultations with coordinators, training on assessment topics, regular reminders of assessment tasks and timelines, feedback on assessment efforts, and tracking of progress by each program.

The Executive Committee recommends that each program perform at least three assessment measures for each PSLO under review—two direct measures at the upper division level and one indirect measure to accompany one of the direct measures. Beyond these guidelines, the faculty are free to select the assessment measures that are deemed most appropriate for each program.

2013-14 Plans

During the 2013-14 year, the committee will continue the structured program assessment process using a strategy centered on submission of small assignments at regular intervals in an ongoing report, including these items:

- Organize an annual convocation meeting for program faculty to review prior assessment decisions and activities and to plan assessment work for the upcoming year.
- Review program mission, educational objectives, and student learning outcomes.
- Update a three-year rotational plan for assessing student learning outcomes.
- Map each student learning outcome to the program curriculum, indicating where the outcome is taught and can be assessed.
- Develop performance indicators for 2013-14 student learning outcomes scheduled for assessment.
- Plan for direct and indirect measures of 2013-14 student learning outcomes scheduled for assessment.
- Implement and re-assess planned improvements from prior year assessment work.
- Compile an organized notebook, file cabinet, or shared drive for program assessment records.
- Submit periodic assessment write-ups, including data summaries, evaluation of data, and action plans for program improvement.
- Organize a spring department meeting to review assessment data and make plans for program improvement.
- Prepare a final assessment report for the learning outcomes web site.
- Collect and analyze senior exit data.

The tasks and timelines for 2013-14 are included in this plan as Appendix B.

Other Academic Assessment

The director works with Distance Education, the Director of Academic Agreements, and those departments with off-site locations to ensure equivalent academic rigor and the inclusion of comparable assessment measures for these programs.

2013-14 Plans

During the 2013-14 academic year, the director will work with the Director of Distance Education to ensure assessment of online courses if the same on-campus course is being used for assessment purposes.

During the 2013-14 academic year, the director will continue work with the Director of Academic Agreements and faculty coordinators to ensure equivalent rigor between Oregon Tech courses and high school advance credit courses. Each coordinator will prepare a memo describing steps taken to ensure equivalent academic rigor and stating any concerns. These concerns will be dealt with by the Director of Academic Agreements, the department involved, and the Provost.

The director will contact all assessment coordinators with off-site programs to request that similar assessment measures be administered at both locations.

The Assessment Commission analyzes information and data through statistical summaries, compilation of written materials, or other established methods. Analyses may provide the University with information pertinent to specific issues, or it may substantiate recommendations for administrative actions.

The Assessment Commission disseminates information by means of:

- Reports on the results of ISLO assessment activities.
- An assessment web site, containing information on general assessment matters, institutional student learning outcomes, and program learning outcomes.
- Written reports to Provost's Council at each of its meetings.

Amending the Charter

The Assessment Commission may modify its charter in consultation with the Provost. Proposals for changes to the commission charter go to the Chair, who negotiates suggested changes with the Executive Committee and any affected administrative bodies. The Chair forwards consensus requests to the Provost for approval. In case of lack of consensus, the Chair forwards competing proposals to the Provost for consideration.

9/18/08 Charter revised to remove references to “Associate Provost,” a position that was eliminated during academic restructuring in 2007-08.

Policy for ISLO Exemption

All programs are expected to participate in annual ISLO assessment activities. Exemption may also be granted on a case by case basis by the Provost.

The procedure for granting an exemption from an ISLO is as follows:

- The assessment coordinator requests the exemption in writing from the Dean, with a copy sent to the Provost and the Director of Assessment. This request must include the rationale for exemption.
- The Provost, Deans, and Director of Assessment meet to discuss all requests.
- The final decision (exemption granted or denied) is made by the Provost.
- The assessment coordinator is notified of the Provost's decision by their respective Dean.
