

RUBRIC

CRITERIA	EXCEEDS (4)	MEETS (3)	PARTIALLY MEETS (2)	MINIMALLY MEETS (1)	DOES NOT MEET (0)
Grant is focused on one or more of the grant categories (service learning and community connections, innovation and industry partnerships, technology for hands-on learning, undergraduate research)	Grant application focuses on efforts in more than one grant category	Grant application focuses on establishing new efforts in one of the grant categories	Grant application focuses on grant categories, but only continues the applicant's current practice	Grant application is only minimally related to grant categories	Grant application does not focus on any of the grant categories
Grant impact	Grant application clearly demonstrates relationship of project or equipment to multiple high impact teaching practices	Grant application clearly demonstrates relationship of project or equipment to one high impact teaching practice	Grant application mentions relationship of project or equipment to high impact teaching practices	Grant application mentions high impact teaching practices but fails to relate them to the proposed project or equipment	Grant application does not address impact at all
Alternative Funding Sources	Grant application is for a project or equipment with no current alternative funding source at Oregon Tech	Grant application is for a project or equipment with alternative funding source(s) pursued by the applicant	Grant application is for a project or equipment that has alternative funding source(s) discussed by the applicant	Grant application is for a project or equipment that has potential alternative funding source(s) not explored by the applicant	Grant application is for a project or equipment that has a clear alternative funding source(s) not explored by the applicant
Grant explains how information and outcomes will be shared	Grant application presents method for sharing results widely (beyond OIT)	Grant application presents method for sharing results across OIT departments and campuses to encourage adoption	Grant application presents method for sharing results on multiple campuses in addition to the required formats	Grant application only addresses sharing the results in the required formats	Grant application does not address sharing results
Includes basic supporting information needed to thoroughly understand and evaluate project needs (costs, time frame, intended participants and/or audience, needs of other programs/departments, etc)	In addition to essential basic information, proposal includes additional information for evaluating the project needs or likely effectiveness	Project includes all basic information needed to thoroughly evaluate project needs	Project includes some of basic information needed to thoroughly evaluate project needs	Project includes minimal basic information needed to thoroughly evaluate project needs	Project includes none of the basic information needed to thoroughly evaluate project needs
Other outstanding or creative features?	Grant application includes more than one outstanding or creative features	Grant application includes an outstanding or creative feature	Grant application replicates previously funded or rejected applications with minimal changes	Grant application is complete but unremarkable	Grant application is incomplete or poorly put together